The first meeting with the client has per objective to understand exactly his specific needs and details on the scope and purpose of its investment project.

The client will speak with Italian and Chinese professionals with extensive experience: the Shareholders of CPO are Italian CPA with over 30 years of experience and two consolidated firms in Italy. In Shanghai, a team of Italian and Chinese professionals will be able to solve issues arising in China & Far East Region.

After understanding all the necessary details from the client, CPO & Partners Shanghai will held technical internal meetings with tax professionals and lawyers to define the best strategy/solution for the specific need.

China is a different world, the judicial and social systems have deep differences compared to European systems: during our advisory services we need to carefully explain and let the client comprehend these differences.

Results are and have been encouraging: our team of Chinese and European professionals is fully committed to deliver excellent quality services to grant a high level of satisfaction to our clients and see their investment projects thrive.

Working process

An experienced and multicultural team will support you and guide you in a completely different environment in order to let you operate safely and profitably
